CBW Study: [redacted]

25X1

- The revised CBW Study was forwarded to the CIPC members on 6 July. The revised draft contained both the decisions of the 25 June CIPC meeting and the rework accomplished at the 27 June CBW Working Group Meeting.
 - The CIPC members were requested to provide their concurrence/ comments by COB 13 July.
 - We have had some preliminary indications that the Study may require more work. State Department has complained that some policy issues they wanted deleted are still in the report and they will not concur until this has been satisfactorily explained.

Narcotics Activity: [redacted]

25X1

- [redacted] briefed Raymond Karam, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Budget and Programs/Department of Transportation, on the background and development of the CIPC Narcotics Study. Mr. Karam is actively involved in the USCG's narcotics effort, including the establishment of an intelligence center at USCG Headquarters.

25X1

China Study: [redacted]

25X1

- The China Study is presently being finalized. [redacted] is incorporating the Working Group's comments provided at the 19 June meeting and other comments subsequently provided during a series of small group meetings held on specific issues. Reportedly, there are no major issues outstanding.
- [redacted] anticipates that a final draft will be ready by early next week for CIPC review.
